KRAKOUER! SHOW

Based on the book Brotherboys by Sean Gorman and adapted for the stage by WA theatre legend Reg Cribb, Krakouer! tells the story of the challenges endured by the brothers in their rise to the top of their game; their skill, daring and resilience, both on and off the sporting field, and the controversy and adversity that has met them throughout their lives as they fought with, and for each other, against racial vilification, gambling addiction, an unforgiving legal system and personal tragedy.

No matter if you are a footy fan or not. The performance simply offers a chronological retelling of the brothers' lives with both solemnity and humour to break once and for all social and racial boundaries. After the show, audience members will get the chance to meet Phil Krakouer and go back home with an autograph.

Krakouer! is an alcohol free event. Doors open at 6.30pm for a 7.30pm start. Tickets are now available online www.mattdann.porthedland.wa.gov.au or 9158 9368 ($35-Adult, $30-Concession and $25-group + booking fees).

KICK AROUND WITH PHIL KRAKOUER

Prior to the show, Town of Port Hedland will be holding a kick around and a BBQ with local footy clubs and Phil Krakouer on Tuesday 9th November from 3.30pm to 6pm on the Hedland Senior High School Oval. This is a great opportunity to catch up with Phil and enjoy a casual game of football as well as a sausage sizzle. If not sold out by then, discounted tickets for the show will be on sale at the event for $25.00 each. So, if you are not scared of playing in front of one of the most famous Australian football player of all-time, come and join us!

For more info, please contact Sheila Cleaver, Town of Port Hedland Community Development Officer on 9158 9387 or email cdo@porthedland.wa.gov.au
